It would help one in understanding the case properly if information the following point is forthcoming:—

Amount deposited at the time of the original bid.
Monthly Sum due.
Default when first made
What steps were taken to Collect &c &
Why the growth of further arrears could not be prevented.

The Exc. Comr however seems to have satisfied himself that the Sum deserves to be remitted.

Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of the marginally noted correspondence, together with a copy of the Remission statement for Rs 62-1-7 in favour of Kadlamma, a Toddy Vend Farmer in the Malkalmuru taluk for 1894-95. I have the honor to state that from the circumstances represented by the Deputy Commissioner, it is clear that the above woman has become impoverished and has no means of paying the aforesaid amount outstanding against her, and to recommend therefore that it may be ordered to be written off the accounts.

Sir,

In submitting a remission-Statement in respect of Rs 82-1-7 due by one Mallammah Toddy renter of Chinnobanahalli Firka in the Molakalmuru Taluk for the year 1894-95 (12 months), I have the honor to state that Rs 110-12-7 was due by farmer, out of which Rs 28-11-0 which was in deposit has since been duly credited. She possesses neither moveable nor immoveable property and Mahazurs to that effect have been given by the villagers of Yeeriyanahulli, Tumkurhully and Siddinakôtay. I therefore beg you will move Government to remit the balance due by the defaulter.

In reply has the honor to request explanation on the following points:—

(1) The Vernacular correspondence received with the above, shows that the defaulter has always been a cooly woman of no means. Under what circumstances and by whom? Why did not the Amildar bring the facts connected with her, to the notice of the Officer conducting the sale?

2. Why was not the Farm resold under the rules, as soon as she failed to produce the remainder of the Security Deposit?

In reply to the above has the honor to state that Mallamma is a Vend farmer of long standing and a reference to the Mahazars which accompanied the Amildars Ittillah No. 47, will show that she was not always a cooly woman of no means, but only that she had become impoverished by the losses sustained by her from rental of which had been raised from Rs 19/2 to Rs 28/11/- in 1894/95.

2. The farm was not reaold as the balance outstanding was for the last quarter of the year, and no bidders could be got to take up the farm at that stage.

3. Further stringent measures since taken, have reduced the balance due from Rs 82-1-7 to Rs 62-1-7, and as she is absolutely without means to pay anything more, a revised remission statement is herewith submitted.

BANGALORE, SATURDAY, MARCH 31, 1894.

Notification by the Govt. of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

REVENUE.

NOTIFICATIONS

SALE OF TODDY VEND FARMS FOR 1894-95.

No. 16422—R. F. 210-92, dated the 30*th March* 1894.

It is hereby notified by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore that the exclusive privilege of selling date toddy in the various classes of farms specified in the subjoined schedule for one year beginning with 1st July 1894 and ending with 30th June 1895, will be sold by the respective Deputy Commissioners or by Assistant Commissioners specially authorized by the Deputy Commissioners for the purpose, on the dates and at the places specified in the said schedule, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. If the sales are not completed on those days, they will be continued on the next following days. Should there be no bids for any of the aforesaid farms, or should any of the present farms be unduly large, the officer conducting the sale, may revise, subdivide or otherwise re-arrange the farms subject to the approval of the Excise Commissioner.

2. The exclusive privilege above described will be put up to auction, and will be knocked down to the approved highest bidder, subject to the formal confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner who will be at liberty to accept or reject any bid at discretion. Such formal confirmation will be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid.

3. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly authorized agents. The successful bidder must, on the exclusive privilege being knocked down to him, and before the next farm is put up for sale, deposit a sum equal to one-twentieth of the amount of his bid, and within fifteen days of the confirmation of the sale having been notified to him by the Deputy Commissioner in writing, he must deposit such further sum as, with the former deposit, will make up an aggregate sum equal to three months' rent, and if he fails to do so, the deposit already made will be forfeited, and the exclusive privilege will be immediately resold or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Commissioner may direct.

4. Resales effected under para 3 will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder who will forfeit all gain, and in the event of a loss by the resale, will make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale. In the latter case, the forfeited deposit will be deducted from the loss arising from the resale; and the remainder, if any, will be recovered from the bidder in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposit be greater than the loss by resale, the whole of such deposit will be credited to Government.

5. The purchaser of the exclusive privilege shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions hereinafter set forth, and the agreement shall be executed within ten days of the expiry of the period of fifteen days above mentioned. If the purchaser fails or refuses to sign the agreement, all deposits already made will be forfeited; and the exclusive privilege will be resold at the risk and loss of the first purchaser as set forth in paras 3 and 4, or be otherwise disposed of. In the case of the purchaser's death after the confirmation of the sale, it will be binding on his heirs or assigns.

6. A statement of existing shops in each farm and the groves attached to each farm, will be shown to the intending bidders at the time of sale, and every successful bidder will be furnished an extract from this statement showing the groves attached to his farm. The monthly rental of each farm for the year 1893-94 is shown in the appended schedule.

7. As soon as the agreement has been executed, the Deputy Commissioner will issue a license in the prescribed form, assigning to the purchaser the exclusive privilege referred to therein, subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) For the supply of toddy to his shops, the licensee shall have the exclusive privilege of manufacturing toddy from the date trees in the groves assigned to his farm; and he shall be at liberty to manufacture toddy from date, palmyra or cocoanut trees in private lands either inside or outside the limits of his farm, on separate free licenses issued under Section 5 of the Excise Act, or to buy it from other farms, under private arrangements between him and the owners of such lands or the licensees of such farms, as the case may be, the selling price of palmyra and cocoanut toddy being fixed by the Excise Commissioner from time to time.

(2.) The exclusive privilege shall extend only to the sale of date, palmyra and cocoanut toddy, and shall not include the sale of bagani toddy.

(3.) The amount for which the privilege has been purchased, shall be payable into the local Government Treasuries on printed chellans furnished for the purpose by Government, in equal monthly instalments commencing from July 1894, together with the local cess of one anna on every rupee of such instalment; each instalment shall be regarded as the rent for the month in respect of which it is payable. Each month's rent, together with local cess thereon, shall be payable on the 15th of the month following.

(4.) The deposit of three months' rent made by the licensee will be taken in payment of the rents due for the last three months of the period of the farm. Failing payment of each monthly rent by the 15th of the next month, the Deputy Commissioner will recover the same under the rules in force for the recovery of land revenue, together with interest at 6 per cent per annum. No remission or abatement of the rent, shall, on any account whatever, be claimable by the licensee.

(5.) The toddy shall be sold to the public at the rates prescribed by Government.

(6.) The toddy shall be sold pure as drawn from trees, and shall not be adulterated or diluted in any manner in the shops, or depôts if any.

(7.) The licensee shall keep true accounts of the quantity of toddy received and issued to shop-keepers. The passes issued with the toddy transported, shall be subject to examination and check by the officers authorized on this behalf.

(8.) The toddy shall not be sold except in shops duly licensed by the Deputy Commissioner in the prescribed form, and no new shops shall be opened without the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner. Tree-foot sales or sales in the open, or the disposal of toddy in any other manner unauthorized by the rules, shall be strictly prohibited.

(9.) The Deputy Commissioner may, whenever he thinks fit, direct any shops to be closed, or permit transfers of shops from one place to another.

10.) The licensee shall not, during the term of the license, have any interest in the exclusive privilege of vending arrack in any part of the farm to which the license relates, nor permit any person having interest in the exclusive privilege of vending arrack in any part of the farm, to hold any share or interest in his exclusive privilege of selling toddy; nor shall he, during the term of his license, without the written permission of the Excise Commissioner, have any interest direct or indirect, in any toddy farm in any Districts of the Madras or Bombay Presidency under the British Government or in any other Foreign State or Territory.

(11.) The licensee shall be bound by the provisions of the Excise laws and rules in force or by any additional rules which may from time to time be prescribed under the Excise laws. The licensee shall use such measures as may from time to time be prescribed by Government, and provide himself with permit books for the transport of toddy, which books may be purchased from local Excise officers.

(12.) This farm shall not be transferable except with the permission of the Excise Commissioner.

(13.) The remaining terms and conditions shall be as set forth in the prescribed licenses.

8. In case of any breach of the aforesaid conditions or of the license either by the licensee, or with his connivance or privity by any person in his employment, or in the event of the licensee neglecting to open his shops or to carry on the business of his farm with due care and attention, it shall be competent to the Deputy Commissioner to impose upon the licensee a fine not exceeding the sum of Rs. 50 for every such breach or neglect, or at the option of the Deputy Commissioner to declare the money deposited with him forfeited, and to cancel the license, and resell the exclusive privilege at the risk of the licensee or to place the farm under the management of Government. When a farm is cancelled, the rent for the whole period of the farm shall become due at once; and all loss caused to Government by the cancelment or resale of the farm shall be made good by the licensee or his surety in the manner specified for resales in para 4 above. All the amounts of such penalties and loss shall be recovered in the same manner as if they were the arrears of land revenue.

9. The imposition of a fine or the forfeiture of deposit or the cancellation of the license under the last preceding condition, shall not be held to prevent the prosecution of the licensee or his agents or employés for any offence punishable under the Excise laws or other enactments or rules for the time being in force.
